

When Going

DEEP

Going

& WIDE

Come Together

“Those who sow with tears will reap with songs of joy.”

—Psalm 126:5

When Going

DEEP

Going

& WIDE

Come Together

“Those who sow with tears will reap with songs of joy.”

—Psalm 126:5

“God heard their groaning and remembered his covenant.”

—Exodus 2:23

“I was pouring out my soul to the Lord.”

—I Samuel 1:15

“Give God no rest...”

—Isaiah 62:7

“Day and night I cry out before you; turn your ear to my cry.”

—Psalm 88:1

“Jesus offered up prayers and petitions with loud cries and tears to the one who could save him.”

—Hebrews 5:7

This is the prayer of the early church.

This is the prayer of the early church.

This is the prayer of Paul.

This is the prayer of the Holy Spirit.

When Going

DEEP

Going

& WIDE

Come Together

“I advised her to wrestle with God for his soul.”

—John Wesley

“Let us be honest in the presence of God and get right into the grips of reality.
Have I a vision of [our] desperate need?
Oh, for a baptism of honesty, for a gripping sincerity that will move us.”

—Duncan Campbell

When Going

DEEP

Going

& WIDE

Come Together

“Sometimes the conduct of the wicked drives Christians to prayer, breaks them down, and makes them sorrowful and tender-hearted, so that they can weep day and night, and instead of scolding the wicked they pray earnestly for them. Then you may expect a revival. Indeed, it is begun already.”

—Charles Finney

When Going

DEEP

Going

& WIDE

Come Together

1. Consider the nature of prayer in Scripture.

1. Consider the nature of prayer in Scripture.
- 2. Take seriously the manner of our prayer and the condition of the petitioner's heart.

1. Consider the nature of prayer in Scripture.
2. Take seriously the manner of our prayer and the condition of the petitioner's heart.
- 3. Seek God about how to pray and for what, desiring to see these as He does.

1. Consider the nature of prayer in Scripture.
2. Take seriously the manner of our prayer and the condition of the petitioner's heart.
3. Seek God about how to pray and for what, desiring to see these as He does.
- 4. Choose desperation.

1. Consider the nature of prayer in Scripture.
2. Take seriously the manner of our prayer and the condition of the petitioner's heart.
3. Seek God about how to pray and for what, desiring to see these as He does.
4. Choose desperation.
- 5. Raise vision.

1. Consider the nature of prayer in Scripture.
2. Take seriously the manner of our prayer and the condition of the petitioner's heart.
3. Seek God about how to pray and for what, desiring to see these as He does.
4. Choose desperation.
5. Raise vision.
- 6. Examine our day and stay in the grip of honesty.

1. Consider the nature of prayer in Scripture.
2. Take seriously the manner of our prayer and the condition of the petitioner's heart.
3. Seek God about how to pray and for what, desiring to see these as He does.
4. Choose desperation.
5. Raise vision.
6. Examine our day and stay in the grip of honesty.
- 7. Become willing to receive this gift of travail.

1. Consider the nature of prayer in Scripture.
2. Take seriously the manner of our prayer and the condition of the petitioner's heart.
3. Seek God about how to pray and for what, desiring to see these as He does.
4. Choose desperation.
5. Raise vision.
6. Examine our day and stay in the grip of honesty.
7. Become willing to receive this gift of travail.
- 8. Get specific. Broad prayers are more easily prayed casually.

1. Consider the nature of prayer in Scripture.
2. Take seriously the manner of our prayer and the condition of the petitioner's heart.
3. Seek God about how to pray and for what, desiring to see these as He does.
4. Choose desperation.
5. Raise vision.
6. Examine our day and stay in the grip of honesty.
7. Become willing to receive this gift of travail.
8. Get specific. Broad prayers are more easily prayed casually.
- 9. Join the most ancient prayer of the Church: "Come Holy Spirit."

“You people who are now crying are blessed, because you will laugh with joy.”

—Luke 6:21

“You people who are now crying are blessed, because you will laugh with joy.”

—Luke 6:21

“Those who sow with tears will reap with songs of joy.”

—Psalm 126:5

When Going

DEEP

Going

& WIDE

Come Together