

A close-up photograph of two hands, palms facing each other, fingers slightly curled, in a gesture of prayer or supplication. The hands are positioned centrally, with a semi-transparent grey banner overlaid across them. The background is dark and out of focus.

Prayer Night

Monday, May 6, 6:45pm

VISION NIGHT

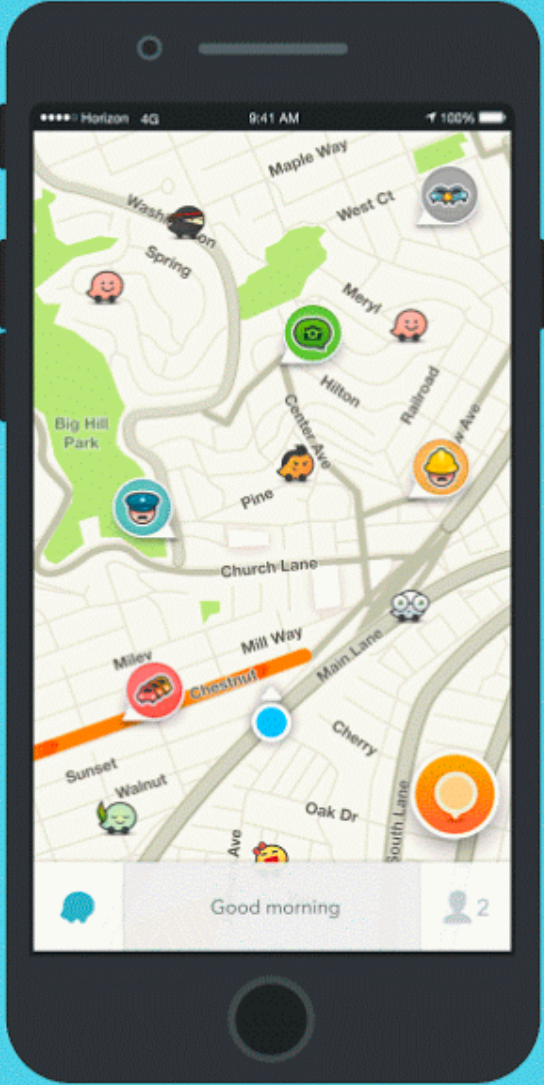

WHERE WE'RE AT... WHERE WE'RE HEADED...

Sunday Evening May 19th

Life Without Lack

Living in the love of Psalm 23

The impact, joyfulness and outcome of our lives is determined by who or what we are trusting with the daily leadership of our lives.

Psalm 23 reveals to us that it is safe to trust Jesus with the daily leadership of your life.

Foundational Truths:

This is a Psalm of David

“David served the purposes of God in his generation then he died.”

Acts 13: 36

Foundational Truths:

These truths point to Jesus

“Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.”

Matt 7: 13-14

Foundational Truths:

When you know the heart of the Shepherd you will trust him no matter how hard life gets.

The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want.

Big idea:

The health, welfare, and happiness of sheep is entirely dependent on their willingness to demonstrate trust in the competency and leadership of the shepherd.

1. David saw himself with characteristics like that of a sheep.

Do you?

Sheep are:

Helpless

Sheep:

are Helpless

get Dirty

are Defenseless

2. As sheep we find daily hope in the competent leadership of our Shepherd, Jesus.

The LORD = Yahweh: The God who saves.

The Lord is MY shepherd

3. We can trust Jesus as a shepherd because he was willing to pay the ultimate price for us to be his sheep.

Jesus-

“I am the good Shepherd. The Good shepherd lays down his life for his sheep.”

John 10:11