The Overcoming
Life

No other book can help a Christ
Follower in being effective in this ever changing world like the book of Revelation.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ...

“there before me was a throne
in heaven...”

To him who overcomes...

“Be faithful...”

“As one studies Revelation one sees that the basic burden of John’s message is to enable the Christians in the seven churches to ‘overcome’-to overcome the Beast with his seductive wealth and pleasure, to overcome those who are holding people captive through violence and fear of death, and to overcome the gradual destruction of complacency.

John reveals the path to overcoming is to have a clear vision of the victorious Jesus, which purges the imagination and strengthens the soul.”

Revelation allows you to set your present moment, in all of its uncertainties, against the unseen realities of the present.

Revelation allows you to set your present moment, in all of its uncertainties, in light of the unseen realities of the future!

Patmos is not just a place...

For us Patmos is an Experience: of doubt, discouragement, unmet expectations, disappointment, fear and possible anger at the perceived absence of God.

Jesus is saying-

“You can TRUST me”

WHAT DIFFERENCE DOES THIS MAKE?

THERE IS NO NEED IN MY LIFE THAT JESUS CANNOT MEET.

The Voice:

THE FIRST PRIORITY OF
DISCIPLESHIP IS TO LISTEN.

JESUS IS AND ALWAYS WILL BE THE CENTER, AND
EVERYTHING ELSE IS IN THE MARGINS.

WE DON'T HAVE TO BE AFRAID!

Jesus says-

LOOK!
